The text is written in a cursive script, likely a form of Hebrew or a related Semitic language. It appears to be a legal or administrative document, possibly a contract or a decree. The text is written on a piece of paper that shows signs of age and wear, with some ink bleed-through from the reverse side. The script is dense and flowing, with many ligatures and variations in line height. The text is arranged in approximately 15 lines, with some lines being longer than others. The overall appearance is that of a historical manuscript or document.
